

Introduction to World Cultures

Instructor: Dawn Clark

Class Code : GEOG 100

Co-teacher? Rita Almasy

Class Time 9:00-9:40am

Tuition : $7.50/semester

Length of Class (1st sem/ 2nd sem/both) Both

Materials Fee : $30/semester

Description:

World Cultures will provide a basic introduction to 8 different countries around the globe on a three week rotation. Students will be taught about the country through many avenues, including literature, crafts and cooking. The format will be as follows:

Week 1--introduce the country

Week 2--crafting

Week 3--a cooking/tasting experience

The children will be designing their our world T-shirt so please provide a shirt size when you register (keep in mind that they grow through out the year and to make sure you order one big enough for the whole year). The tentative list of countries that will be covered during the year: Japan, Germany, Philippines, Panama, Ireland, Ethiopia, Jamaica and Chile.

Enrollment: Min:

8

Max:

14

Pre-Requisites: For students in grades 1 - 3

Required Text:

None, although an atlas or globe for them to tell you about their class at home will help reinforce the lesson

Additional Materials:

All materials will be provided

Contact Information

Name: Dawn Clark

Email: the.pa.clarks@gmail.com