Description:

This is the first level Institute for Excellence in Writing course. This course will be structured around the IEW book Ancient History-Based Writing Lessons available through their website. This book and course are geared for grades 4-6. We will begin with a review of basic grammar, then explore key word outlines, story charts, writing from pictures, and 3-paragraph essays.

A meeting will be held in August to help introduce parents to the IEW method.
