

American Girl History Class

Instructor: Michelle Price

Class Code : Am200

Tuition : $20/sem

Length of Class (1st sem/ 2nd sem/both) both

Materials Fee : none

Description:

This class will be a hands-on history & literature class using the American Girl books. Students will read selected books on the various dolls, and we will incorporate history, literature, music, food, clothing, etc. based on the time period we are studying. A syllabus will be available well in advance of the start of each semester. This class was offered a few years ago and was enjoyed by the girls AND the mothers who helped.

Enrollment: Min: 6

Max: 14

Pre-Requisites:

3rd. - 5th grade

Required Text:

Must have access to read at least the first book in the American Girl series for each doll. For example, "Meet Kaya". Many of these books are available at local libraries, and many of our co-op families may have a copy to borrow.

Additional Materials:

Students will need a 3 ring notebook to keep handouts and class information in. Students and parents will be notified via email if colored pencils, markers, scissors, etc. will be needed for a class.
