

2015-2016 CHEF Co-op

Intro. to Early American History

Instructor: Julie Maneval

Class Code : His100

Co-Instructor: Cheryl Palko

Tuition : $0/per semester

Length of Class (1st sem/ 2nd sem/both) Both

Materials Fee : $35/per semester

Description:

Students will be introduced to early American history beginning with five different Native American tribes, exploring their geographical location, food, clothing, shelter and family life. Then we will continue with the Pilgrims at Plymouth, from their voyage to the New World, building a village, family life and work, to going to school and what the Pilgrims gave us. We will explore history with memorable activities and each student will create a personalized book of projects. We will use helpful illustrations, maps, charts and timelines, as well as lots of arts and crafts activities.

Enrollment: Min:

8

Max:

15

Pre-Requisites:

For students in grades 1-3. Student must be six years old by the beginning of class.

Required Text:

None.

Additional Materials:

All material will be provided.

Contact Information

Name: Julie Maneval

Email: jam2babe@yahoo.com