Description

We will be using the third volume of Mystery of History which covers the time from the Renaissance through the Reformation and finishing with the growth of nations (1400-1700). Homework will be assigned as each student must come prepared to enter in to lively discussion about the lessons covered. In class we will work on a class time line, activities pertaining to the lessons covered, and mapping of the countries discussed. There will be opportunities for each student to present book report's on something pertaining to what we are learning once a semester. Since this edition has be re-published into two separate books, only the student reader is required for weekly assignments. I will provide the maps and any activates pages necessary to enrich what we are learning.
