Description:

Bell choir consists of practicing Christmas selections for a short Christmas concert given at the beginning of December. In the practicing of carols and songs, the students also learn musical concepts such as rhythm, melody and harmony, chords and scales. Students have the opportunity to play multiple bells in the Christmas selections as 38 different bells are available to be handled. They will also study the backgrounds of the songs and composers. Bell choir is a wonderful opportunity to spread Christmas cheer!
