Description:

Chorus time in the spring semester will involve learning and performing numerous choral selections. I plan to pick two medleys from two different musicals. Currently I am planning on using medleys from The Sound of Music, and Mary Poppins. Through the practicing of these musical selections, we will begin to learn to sing parts and we will be divided into two or three sections. We will also concentrate on learning how to read music by beginning to understand scales, intervals, and different rhythm notation. We will also work together to incorporate choreography into our short production. Proper singing techniques will also be developed and demonstrated. A short performance will be given at the end of the semester.
