

Lit(erature) Lite

Instructor: Marie Kane

Class Code :

Co-teacher? NA

Tuition : NA

Length of Class (1st sem/ 2nd sem/both)

Both

Materials Fee :

$12 per semester

Description:

This class will function as a book discussion group to encourage students to enjoy reading and have a thoughtful approach to what is read. We will read a variety of genres, which may include biography, fantasy, adventure, realistic fiction, historical fiction, humor, nonfiction, mystery, folktales, and poetry. We will learn about the genres, story elements, and what makes good literature. Our discussions will also include interactive activities to promote comprehension. The main homework will be completing reading assignments and being prepared to review them in class. A minimal second homework assignment will be given each week as review. Once each semester, students will complete a project, mostly creative in nature.

Enrollment:

4

Max: 16

Pre-Requisites: none

Required Text:

Hudson Taylor Deep in the Heart of China by: Benge, The Secret Garden by: Burnett, Whittington by: Armstrong, Mountain Meets the Moon by: Lin, Torches of Joy by:

Additional Materials:

Contact Information

Name: Marie Kane

Email: mercyhouse336@gmail.com

a