Description:

This literature class is intended to correspond with Mrs. Sally Roe's History course. The subject matter and the writers may be secular (although we cover a couple of sacred authors of this time period). Fifteen titles and authors will be covered over the course of the academic year. Short written assignments will be collected and graded. Discussion highlights will include plot summary, character study, theme, setting, literary style, and analysis from the perspective a of a Christian worldview.

Enrollment: 10

Max: 22

Pre-Requisites:

Required Text:

Students will need access to each of the titles from the attached reading list.

Additional Materials:

In addition to a place to store assignments and notes, students will be required to bring a journaling notebook to class.
